Major Ashcraft returned from Shiloh battlefield this morning.

The Clifton is still due out of the Tennessee river. She is delayed by fog.

The Richardson departed on time this morning for Cairo with a good trip.

The Wilford came out of the Tennessee river yesterday afternoon and is at Joppa unloading.

Captain J. F. Browinski, of Joppa, came up last night to see his son, who is a cub pilot on the T. H. Davis.

The Memphis arrived at 10 o'clock last night from Tennessee river and will leave at 6 o'clock today on her return trip.

The towboat Fulton will arrive from Louisville in a few days to take to Diamond Island the "Tornado" a coal digger, that is now laying at the Island.

The Thomas Parker arrived from Tennessee river yesterday afternoon and went to Joppa to unload. She will go out again this afternoon or tomorrow.

On account of the high price of timber, coalboats are being taken apart at New Orleans, loaded on barges and towed to Pittsburg to be used in rebuilding coalboats and barges.

The towboats are beginning to come up with the rise. The T. H. Davis arrived last night from Joppa and went to Rose Clair, Ill., with two big barges. The Finley arrived yesterday from Joppa and is laying up at the island. The Joe B. Williams will be here from below some time today. When there is a rise they will all go out, the Boaz having been here for several days.

Captain Tom Ryman, once owned and controlled all the boats on Cumberland river. A country fellow rented a farm on the river, and, hearing of Ryman's "coup," he naturally thought Ryman owned the river. One day he hailed one of the boats and yelled: "Is Cap'n Ryman on that?" "Yes," responded Captain Ryman, who happened to be aboard. "That's my name. What do you want?" "Say, Cap," said the fellow on the bank, "w'at'll yer charge ter let my cattle an' hogs drink out o' your river?" "Nothing! Let them help themselves," responded Ryman, and the boat went on, leaving the newcomer satisfied that Ryman was a clever man.

IN POLICE COURT.

ROYAL MERRITT WAS RELEASED FROM CUSTODY THIS MORNING.

Not Worry, but Slumber.

They were discussing suicides and the proneness of different peoples to depart in that way, when one of those engaged in the conversation turned to a colored man and asked: "Why is it that so few of your people take their own lives?" After scratching his head a moment the person addressed responded: "Well, I tell you, boss, when a nigger sits down he don't worry, but goes to sleep."

In Paducah's Manufacturing Center.

TEST CASE.

A WARRANT TO BE ISSUED AGAINST MR. THEO LUTTRELL AT HIS REQUEST.

Mr. Theodore Luttrell of the county is desirous of testing the compulsory vaccination law, and a warrant will probably be issued against him shortly for a violation.

Some time since an order was issued that all children of the county must be vaccinated to comply with the state law. Mr. Luttrell called on Dr. Frank Boyd, representative in this county of the state board of health, and asked that he be warranted. Dr. Boyd read him the law and also three decisions of the court of appeals sustaining the law, but this did not satisfy him, so Dr. Boyd agreed to the test.

He served a notice on Mr. Luttrell, who has two children he is raising and will not have vaccinated, at the latter's request, and the notice will be returned and the warrant issued. It is a friendly affair, and Dr. Boyd says will result simply in Mr. Luttrell having to pay a fine or stand the cost of carrying the case to the court of appeals and then pay the fine in the end.

MARRIAGES AT HICKMAN.

Hickman, Oct. 8—Miss Lou Ramage, a former teacher in the public school and one of the most popular and attractive young ladies in this city, was married to Ernest Johnson, a worthy and prominent young farmer of this county, in Louisville. The couple returned home today. Miss Maud Eacre and Oscar Salmon were married Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride.
